

Hope Trio Asks Funds for Start of Millwood

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate Appropriations Subcommittee has been urged to provide funds for Red River flood control projects and to approve two appropriations of $500,000 each to start work on two reservoirs.

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.) was among witnesses testifying on the projects yesterday.

McClellan said heavy runoff threatened to wash out two bridges near Garland City, Ark., which he said would cost nearly 3 1/2 million dollars to replace.

Other witnesses asked a total of one million dollars for the Millwood Reservoir in Arkansas and Broken Bow Reservoir in Oklahoma. The Budget Bureau did not recommend any funds for these projects.

Witnesses also asked that a Budget Bureau recommendation of $700,000 for Red River bank stabilization be upped to one million dollars.

Three waterway leaders from Hope, Ark., testified before the committee urging that funds be made available for start of the Millwood project. They were former Senator Lloyd Spencer, George P. Clark, chairman of the Southwest Arkansas Water District and C. V. Nunn Jr., city attorney.

Lions Told About Value of Forests

At yesterday's Lions Club meeting Wayne Pruitt of International Paper Company discussed the close relationship between southern forests and the nation's economy. This is National Paper Week.

Cancer Film at Saenger Thurs. p. m.

A film made for every Hempstead County woman over 21 will be shown here April 28 for the first time at the Saenger Theatre at 2 p. m. It is being brought here by the Hempstead County Unit of the American Cancer Society.

The film is called "Time and Two Women." It was made by the American Cancer Society, and shown how and why the cell examination for uterine cancer can lead to the virtual elimination of uterine cancer as a major cause of cancer death among women.

Uterine cancer, the second most common form of cancer in women now claims the lives of 16,000 American women annually. Although ACS statistics also show that 55 per cent of all uterine cancers are now being cured, medical authorities say the disease is practically 100 per cent curable if it is detected and treated in its earliest stages.

"Our aim in showing this new film is to convince every Hempstead County woman over 21 to have an annual checkup that includes the cell examination for uterine cancer," said Mrs. Jimmy Cook, president of the local unit of the Cancer Society.

"I cannot emphasize too strongly how important this film is to women. It explains clearly and simply what uterine cancer is and how vital the cell examination for it is to life and health."

Featured in the film is Dr. Joe V. Meigs, one of the nation's most prominent gynecologists.

A doctor will be available after the showing to answer questions from the audience.

British Like the Memphis 'Teenager'

LONDON (AP)—Londoners got their first glimpse today of 17-year-old Lynda Lee Rasberry of Memphis, and liked her. She was promptly called "the American teenager with a difference."

No jeans, no hair in shreds, no chatter about rock 'n' roll, reported the Evening Star approvingly.

Instead, Londoners saw a girl in a crisp white blouse, neat blazer-style jacket, and a pleated skirt falling well below the knees. The Star said it is understandable why in Memphis she was chosen a Teen-Ager of the Year. A part of Europe, and she is in London after visits to Rome, Paris and Amsterdam.

"So far I have liked Rome the best, but of course I am just beginning to see London," said Lynda. Her first expedition was to Buckingham Palace to watch the changing of the guard. She hopes to visit Stratford on Avon.

Story of the 3 Bears in Arkansas

NEWPORT, Ark. (AP)—Three bears—a mother and a two cubs—spent yesterday in a tree near John Keel's farmhouse in the Ingleside community, 10 miles south of here.

Sightseers crowded into the area. The bears ignored them. About midnight the bears came down and ambled back into the woods.

Keel's son, Franklin, 18, first spotted the bears about 6 a. m. yesterday. He said the two small bears already were high in the tree and the mother was climbing toward them.

Keel estimated that crowds around the tree totaled as many as 75 persons at peak periods.

Traffic got so snarled it blocked Keel's road and he tried leading the bears down with honey. It didn't work.

"I guess the best thing to do is leave them alone," Mrs. Keel said. "They'll have to come down for food." Keel agreed with the suggestion.

The Keels didn't see the bears come down.

"But about midnight the dogs started howling and barking and we figure that's when the bears were leaving," Keel said. The bears were gone this morning.

Bears have been sighted several times in Arkansas during the past few years.

Ike Appeals for Okay to His Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to send Congress a special message appealing for action on his legislative program and opposing what Republican congressional leaders describe as budget-busting proposals sponsored by Democrats.

Plans for the message, which will go to the Capitol soon, were announced by the GOP leaders at the White House today after their weekly conference with Eisenhower.

The leaders also reported that Eisenhower is opposed to a House bill which the Republicans said would increase the pay of federal employees 20 per cent and cost the government $1,600,000,000 a year.

The administration intends to fight a bill which would permit the Federal National Mortgage Assn. to buy a billion dollars worth of government-backed home mortgages.

The administration has reached no final conclusions as to just what kind of health insurance program it will offer for the aged. As for the special message, Dirksen and Halleck left no doubt that Eisenhower is critical of the record of the Democratic-controlled Congress.

Screenon Files for Re-election

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—State Sen. Jerry Screenon of Hazen filed today as a candidate for re-nomination to Position One in the 18th District.

State Rep. Joe Melton of Lonoke and J. T. Gunter of Austin already have filed for the post which covers Lonoke and Prairie counties.

Melton and Gunter said Screenon is not supposed to seek re-nomination under an agreement by which the position is traded between the counties on alternate terms. Screenon said he was aware of the agreement, but he filed anyway.

Screenon said he has the assurance of his fellow senators that he will be elected speaker pro-tem of the Senate if he is re-elected.

Quake Death Toll Not to Exceed 500

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—Weary rescue teams pressed on today, digging dead and injured from the ruins of the quake-shattered city of Lar, but death estimates dropped sharply as more accurate reports reached the capital.

"The total is not expected to exceed 500 dead," said Dr. Hussein Khatibi, director of Iran's Red Cross, after conferring with officials who visited the disaster scene 550 miles south of Tehran.

Officials at the scene originally had estimated that as many as 2,000 perished in the two quakes which on Sunday battered Lar, a city of 14,000 and Gersah, a complex of villages 15 miles southward.

A Red Cross pilot who flew low over the city late Monday and landed nearby said the damage did not appear as total as originally reported.

Red Cross officials said most of the homeless are now in tents and everyone has been clothed and fed.

Biloxi Still Stunned by Violence

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—Biloxi, still stunned and jittery from fights between Negroes and whites, tried today to restore the area's vacation atmosphere.

The Gulf coastal region, supported mainly by tourists, showed little of its normal carefree spirit Monday.

Few cars moved on the streets. Sidewalks were nearly deserted.

Police, suspicious of any gathering, moved quickly Monday night when about 150-200 whites gathered around the police station.

The crowd was waiting for night court and the trial of six Negroes arrested in Sunday's disturbances that resulted from Negroes trying to use the beaches reserved for whites.

The six, charged with carrying concealed weapons, were fined $100 each.

U. S. Pirates Are Being Held by the Cubans

By ROBERT BERRELEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban officials today held two American officers who killed a ship captain (trying to rescue them from a Bahaman island and fled in his cabin cruiser).

Cuban authorities captured the pair—Alvin Tables Jr., 25, and William Sees, 23—and the stolen yacht Muriel III Monday after they went aground on an islet near Isabela de Sagun, 200 miles east of Havana.

Officials said the fugitives would be brought to Havana, but did not say when. The British want them in the Bahamas on charges of murder and piracy.

Tables and Sees' 18-year-old bride, Barbara Fisher of San Antonio, Tex., stole a boat in Key West last week, ran out of gas and were stranded last Tuesday on Elbow Cay, a deserted island in the Bahamas. Their boat broke up on the rocks.

On Sunday Angus Boatwright, 55, of Key West, owner of the Muriel III, spotted the eastaways while cruising for game fish with four Pennsylvania men who had chartered his boat.

Tables and Sees swam out and shot Boatwright after the skipper refused to land. He said Tables joined Sees aboard the boat and they let the four Pennsylvanians swim ashore, floating Boatwright's body with them on life jackets.

Hokanson said he dove overboard and also swam ashore, and Sees and Tables fled in the Muriel, leaving Boatwright dead.

Ike to Call Management, Labor Talks

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower announced plans to promote a series of labor-management summit conferences aimed at improving industrial peace and economic growth.

The White House said today Eisenhower is asking the AFL-CIO and the National Assn. of Manufacturers to designate three representatives each to arrange the conferences.

The plans were disclosed after Eisenhower conferred with George Meany, AFL-CIO president, who suggested the conference last November.

The six representatives would decide on the subject matters for the conference, additional conferences and other such questions.

The conferees themselves, the White House said, will be top-level executives of the AFL-CIO and presidents or board chairmen of companies that have collective bargaining agreements with AFL-CIO unions.

Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell attended the conference between Meany and Eisenhower. He told newsmen of the planned meetings will "help to further industrial peace and bring labor and management closer together on such matters as automation, inflation, economic growth and the question of foreign competition."

Government Totters as U.S. Appeals to Rhee to Act Faster

Korean Leader Has Promised New Elections

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States prodded the Syngman Rhee government of South Korea today to act faster to "redress the grievances of the people."

President Rhee has promised to hold new elections and indicated he is prepared to resign. He has also called on his controversial Vice President-elect Lee Ki-poong to step aside. But the United States obviously wants him to carry out his office speedily.

Asked whether a speedup was the intent of the statement, made here today, State Department press officer Lincoln White replied: "We hope that adequate measures to redress these grievances will be made as soon as possible—yes."

The statement noted Rhee's promised moves but said pointedly that latest reports from Seoul "indicate that the demonstrations against the government are continuing."

In advance of the statement, the United States set up a conference of representatives of the 16 nations which contributed U.N. forces during the Korean War of 1950-53. But South Korea was not invited.

White said it is "safe to assume" that U. N. forces guarding the border between turbulent South Korea and Communist North Korea are on a 24-hour alert.

By GENE KRAMER

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—President Syngman Rhee's 12-year rule over South Korea today threatened to collapse in the face of another great outburst of public opposition and firm pressure from the U.S. government.

After all-night street demonstrations in Seoul against his government, the 85-year-old leader offered to resign the presidency for a new election of a president and vice president and promised to hand executive power over to a cabinet responsible to Parliament.

The National Assembly responded with a resolution asking Rhee to resign immediately and also called for elections to replace the Assembly, now dominated by Rhee's Liberal party.

There was no indication when Rhee would formally resign and when he would call the elections. But it was clear that the 12-year rule of South Korea's first and only president, its national hero and "George Washington," was nearly at an end.

Mystery surrounded Rhee's whereabouts. A spokesman at the presidential mansion said he had left there by car and he did not know where he was.

His prospective resignation raised the question of who would take over the reins of government, since Vice President John M. Chang, leader of the opposition Democratic party, has resigned and so has Lee Ki-Poong, the vice president-elect.

Presumably control will pass to Huh Chung, an independent politician and longtime acting premier, whom Rhee Monday appointed foreign minister and the ranking member of the new cabinet. The president has been trying to form a "Jubilation swept Seoul. Police—symbol of oppression and torture under Rhee's rule—disappeared from the streets. Thousands besieged Rhee's hillside mansion. Upstairs, celebrating throngs milled down the broad, tree-lined avenue leading to the Capital building.

Crowds pulled two statues of Rhee from their pedestals in public parks and dragged them through the streets.

Newspapers Seek Way to Avoid Payola

NEW YORK (AP)—Precautionary measures to avoid payola in the newspaper profession were examined today at the annual convention of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn.

The subject was the chief topic of interest in a discussion group. Sentiment appeared to be against acceptance of free travel, junkets and free tickets to sporting or theatrical events except for the actual coverage of the events.

A number of publishers indicated they intend to cut down on the practice of letting members of their staffs and management accept free trips and tickets.

ANPA officials said in talks prior to the discussion session that the years ahead will be filled with problems for newspapers but also filled with prospects for continued development and growth.

Ozan Woman Buried at Belton

Funeral services were held Monday at Nashville for Mrs. Betty Merrell Bohanon, 77, resident of Ozan R. 1, who died Saturday at Pine Bluff. She was a member of the Zion Baptist Church. Burial was in Merrell Cemetery at Belton by Latimer Funeral Service of Nashville.

Survivors include her husband, J. W. Bohanon of Ozan, two daughters, Mrs. Bill Blakely and Mrs. J. T. Collins of Pine Bluff; three sons, Jim of Murfreesboro, Alton of Ozan and Merrell Bohanon of Los Angeles, Calif. two sisters and three brothers.

Train, Car Meet at L&A Crossing

Two accidents were investigated by City Police during the past 24 hours, both resulting in heavy damage.

About 3:35 a. m. KCS train No. 27 and an auto driven by Cecil A. Hughes of Little Rock collided at the Third Street L&A crossing. Nobody was injured. Officers Sinyard and Howe reported heavy damage to the door and fender of the auto.

Yesterday at Third and Bonner autos driven by Mrs. Max H. Jordan of Hope and Billy Joe Brooks of Texarkana collided with heavy property damage to the Jordan auto. Officer Pedron reported.

Club Women View Health Facilities

Eighteen health leaders from 13 home demonstration clubs in this county made a tour of the health office, welfare office, rest home and Memorial Hospital with Mrs. Ernest Graham, county health and safety leader presiding.

After a brief discussion of objectives and purpose of the tour, the group went to the health office where Mrs. Inez Turner explained the responsibilities of the office.

The leaders enjoyed a sack lunch at fair park and then visited the welfare office where Mrs. Alma Drew discussed the types of assistance available to those who need it.

The rest home was visited for a short period where the group met Mrs. George Dodd, supervisor, and talked with patients.

At Memorial Hospital Charlie Wilson led the group on a tour of the facilities for the best patient care possible.

Taking part in the tour were: Mrs. Sid Skinner, Centerville club; Mrs. Carl Hicks, Columbus; Mrs. Bernice Bain, Mrs. Virginia Rowe and Mrs. Jimmie Griffin, Hinton; Mrs. Ernest Graham, Hopewell; Mrs. Lester Kent, Liberty Hill; Mrs. L. G. Shuffield, McCaskill;

Mrs. Virgil Huckabee and Mrs. Otto Roberts, Melrose; Mrs. Josie Mae Porterfield, Spring Hill; Mrs. Esther Montgomery and Miss Hazel Cummings, Sweet Home; Mrs. C. J. Rowe, Victory; Mrs. Clint East, Shover Springs; Mrs. Verl McAdams, Shady Grove; Mrs. Arthur Gray Jr. Guernsey; and Mrs. Joann Phillips, Home Demonstration Agent.

Clemency All But Out for Chessman

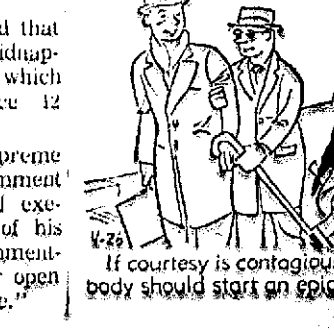

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—Gov. Edmund Brown today all but ruled out executive clemency that would save Caryl Chessman from execution Monday.

"I am constitutionally now prohibited from extending clemency," he said.

He said he's still convinced that Chessman is guilty of the kidnapping—sex charges which brought the death sentence 12 years ago.

Monday the U. S. Supreme Court rejected without comment an application for a stay of execution for Chessman. One of his attorneys, A. L. Wirt, commented "the only remaining door open is the governor's conscience."

Proclamation Coming Soon to Saenger

WHEREAS, the rights and individual freedoms which Americans accept as their birthright are made possible by a government of laws and a system of independent courts in which every citizen enjoys equal protection, and,

WHEREAS, in today's complex society there is a particular need for understanding on the part of our citizens of all ages that respect for law and acceptance of the principle of the supremacy of law is vital to the public welfare and necessary for the preservation of the individual liberties that distinguish our way of life from totalitarian systems and,

WHEREAS, by proclamations of the President of the United States, and by the Governor of Arkansas, the first day of May, 1960, has been designated as "Law Day U.S.A." to emphasize the benefits that every citizen enjoys through law and to focus public attention on the efforts now being made, under the leadership of the legal profession, to extend the rule of law in the interest of world peace, and,

WHEREAS, the fact that Law Day in 1960 occurs on Sunday is a reminder to all Americans that freedom of religious worship is one of the priceless freedoms embodied in our laws and traditions, in contrast with the absence of religious liberty in Communist lands,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Mayor of the City of Hope, Ark., do hereby proclaim Sunday, May 1, 1960, as Law Day in our community; and urge that our churches, schools, civic and fraternal organizations join in the observance through appropriate programs, the school and other civic observances to take place either on May 2 or on a date proximate to May 1. I also urge that members of the legal profession, and the media of public information, lend their support to the end that this important event will be made informative and meaningful for all our citizens.

Given under my hand and seal as Mayor of the City of Hope, Ark., this 21st day of April, 1960.

Giants Catch St. Louis in 8th for Victory

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

That's really a sophomore fix riding Willie McCovey, the San Francisco Giants. The big first baseman is hitting a mere .104—six of his seven hits have been for extra bases. Four of them have been homers and he is tied for the National League runs-batted-in lead with 13.

The jinx? He can't hit singles. Willie, Rookie of the Year in the NL when he batted .354 in 52 games last season, put across four RBI Monday night with his one-run homer capping a five-run eighth inning that beat St. Louis 9-6.

It was the only game scheduled in the NL and boosted the Giants back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh.

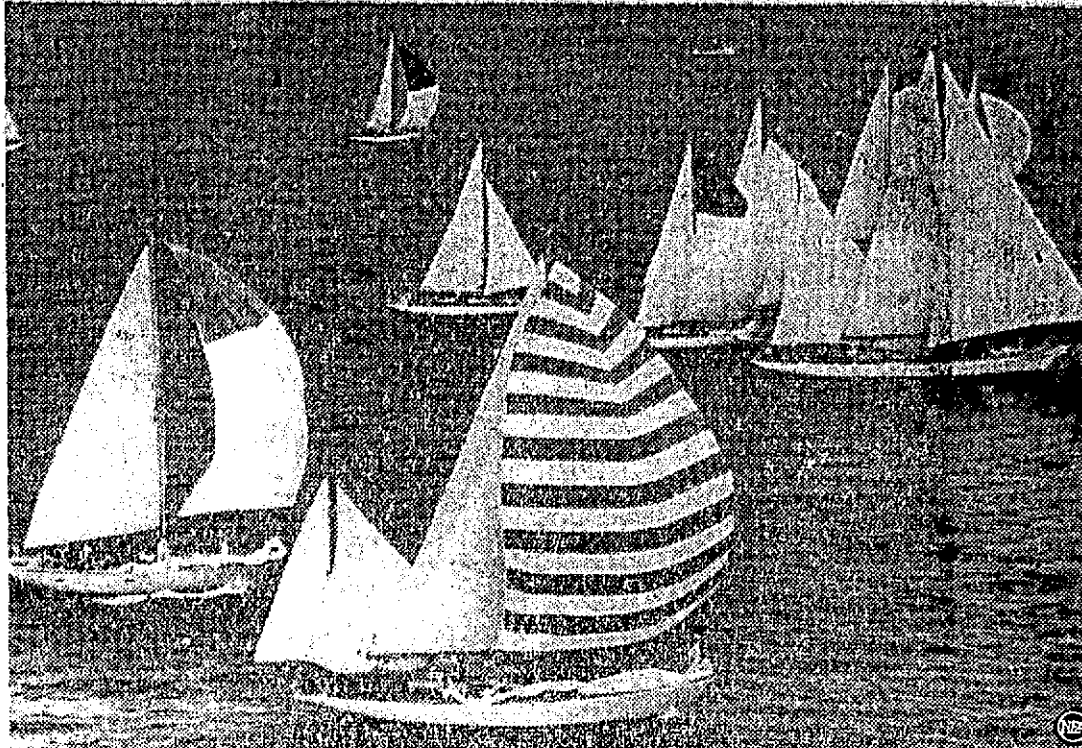

In the American League, Bud Daley's three-hitter and four unearned runs in the fourth gave Kansas City a 6-1 victory over the Chicago White Sox and Herh Score. Baltimore ended its slump at five, defeating Washington 3-2 off Jim Gentile's three-run homer in the first inning.

McCovey, 22, was the big gun as the Giants overhauled a 5-1 Cardinal lead. His only single in 30 times at bat counted two of the Giants three seventh-inning runs against starter Wilmer Mizell. In the eighth, singles by ex-Card Dan Blassingame and Willie Mays accounted for three runs before McCovey unloaded with the clincher off losing reliever Bob Dabba (1-2).

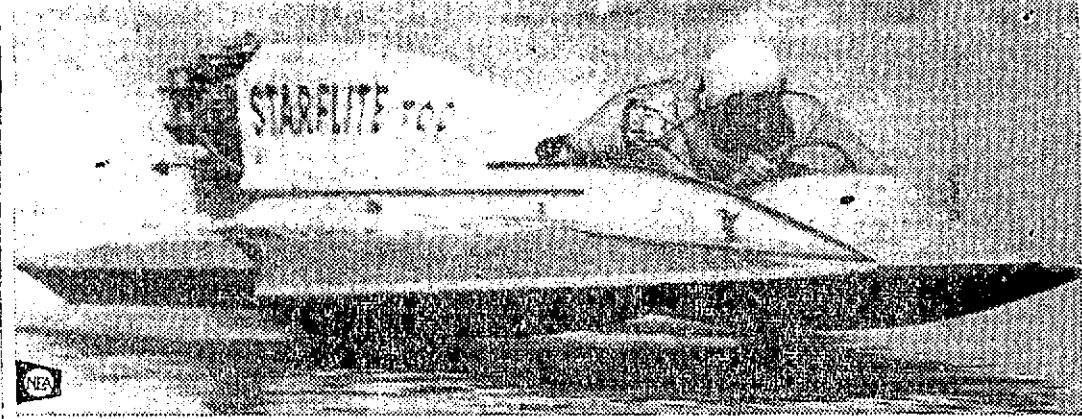

That made it 9-7 San Francisco before pinch-hitter Carl Sawatski hammered the Cards' fourth home run of the game, off reliever Ray Mozzone. Ex-Giant Daryl Spencer, connected with two at-bats against starter Mike McCormick. Stan Musial and Ken Boyer also homered for the Cards, who now have hit home runs in all 10 of their games.

Boyer, tied with McCovey and Pittsburgh's Bob Skinner for the RBI lead, hit his No. 6 home run, tops in the majors and his fourth in three games. It was off winning reliever Johnny Antonelli (1-0), who gave up two runs in his lone inning.

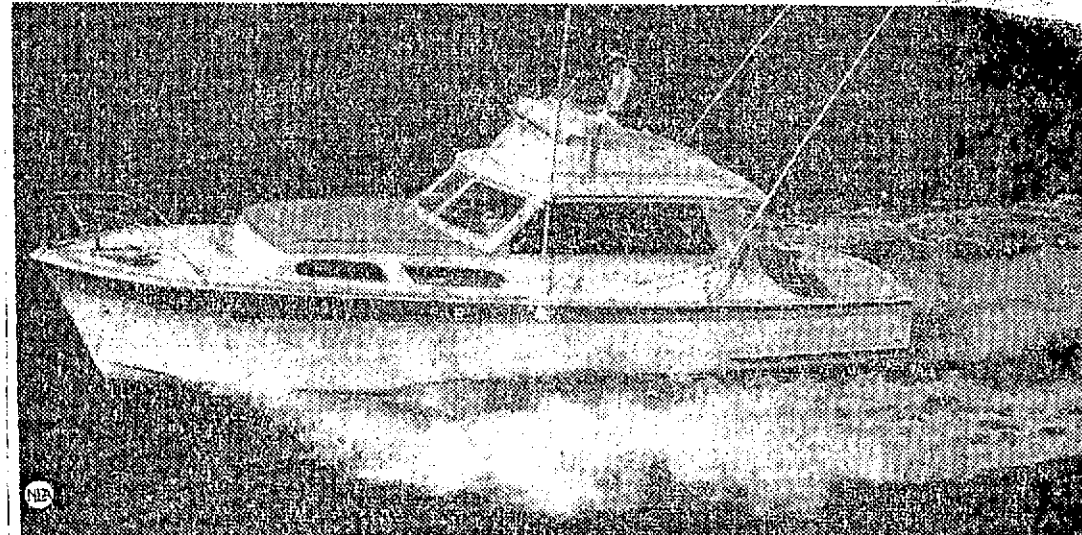

Jim Davenport also homered for the Giants, who have hit 11 and have scored 41 runs in their last four games.

Score Fails to Help Sox, KC Posts a Win

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Add yet another disappointment for Herh Score.

The tough luck guy, making his 1960 debut in his first game with the Chicago White Sox, ran into Hank Bauer's home run bat, four unearned runs and a dandy, three-hit pitching job by Bud Daley for a 6-1 setback at Kansas City Monday night.

It was the seventh straight loss since last July for the troubled young southpaw. It was the fourth in a row for the American League champion White Sox.

The defeat dropped the Sox to sixth, 3 1/2 games behind idle, unbeaten Detroit, while Kansas City climbed into a third-place tie with Washington. The Senators lost 3-2 the Baltimore Orioles, who had dropped five straight, in the only other AL game.

In the only National League game, San Francisco scored five in the eighth inning, capped by Willie McCovey's two-run homer, and climbed back into a first-place tie with Pittsburgh by beating St. Louis 9-8.

Score, 28, who has won only 11 since being felled by a line drive in 1957, now has missed in 10 starts since putting away his last victory—an 8-4 decision at Kansas City last July 3. He walked five, but struck out three and had allowed only two hits through three innings. One was Bauer's third-inning home run that tied it 1-1.

Then came the fourth, and five Kansas City runs.

Bob Johnson singled and rookie Ken Hamlin followed with what looked like a doubleplay ball. But shortstop Luis Aparicio threw it away. Johnson scored the lead run and the A's were on their way.

Four more singles got Score (3-2) out of the game and reliever Mike Garcia gave up another.

Turk Lown and Gerry Staley blanked the A's on two hits the rest of the way, but the champs were down with their fourth defeat in six games.

Two walks and Jim Gentile's two-out home run, his first in the AL, beat right-hander Russ Kemmerer (0-1) and the Senators in the first inning at Washington. Mill Pappas (1-0) allowed five-hits one Don Mincher's first major league run, and struck out seven for his sixth in a row over the Nats since Aug. 10, 1958.

Ice Pick in Brain Finally Is Fatal

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—An ice pick imbedded in the brain for seven years apparently caused the death of a 32-year-old Malvern Negro, authorities said yesterday.

An autopsy revealed the ice pick, 4 inches long, in the brain of Eddie Powell, 32.

Powell had complained of headaches for about three weeks, authorities said. He entered a hospital here late Sunday after suffering convulsions and died yesterday.

Prosecutor Lawson Glover of Malvern said he would investigate the death. He said Powell's family had not been aware of the ice pick, but that they reported it in a 1953 fight.

Palmer Will Concentrate on Houston

By KEN ALTYA

HOUSTON (AP)—Arnold Palmer passed up the $5,000 pro-amateur events today to concentrate on practice for Thursday's opening of the $35,000 Houston golf classic.

"I haven't played in two weeks," said the muscular Masters champion and golf's big money winner of 1960.

Palmer has been installed as a strong favorite to win his second Houston title in four years.

"I really need some practice," Palmer said upon arrival at the 7,122-yard, par 72 Memorial Park course.

So while the Latrobe, Pa., pro was making another inspection today of Memorial's long fairways and rolling greens most of the other name pros in Thursday's field of 150 were across town competing for cash while teamed with local amateurs.

The starting field was completed Monday as 26 players score three-under-par 75s or better in a qualifying round in which there were only 38 entries.

Setting the pace were two young newcomers, Ab Justice of Oklahoma City, and Lee Raymond, Toledo, Ohio. Both had 69s.

Pegler Case Dismissed

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—A divorce suit filed by columnist Westbrook Pegler and a counter claim entered by his wife have been dismissed in Superior Court.

Pegler said Monday he and his wife have reconciled and are living together in their Tucson suburban home.

He was one shot ahead of John Gounther of Reading, Pa. Another shot back was Frank Stranacci of Miami, Fla., who won back to back Miami and South titles in 1959-60.

Tied at 70 were Bob Cochran of St. Louis, a semi-finalist last year, and Young Pal Foy Brady of Reidsville, N.C.

Two rounds Wednesday will be followed by single rounds Thursday and Friday with the 36-hole finals Saturday.

No Favorite in Amateur Golf Meet

By KEN ALTYA

PINEHURST, N.C. (AP)—Reports that the field for the 60th North and South Amateur Golf Tournament was the strongest in history with no clear-cut favorite were not exaggerated.

Match play began today for the 64 survivors of Monday's qualifying round that had veteran observers searching the records for its equal. They couldn't find another like it, at least through the last 10 years.

When the record field of 145 finished 11 hours of combat, the usually unyielding 7,007-yard No. 2 course of the Pinehurst Country Club had been subjected to a thorough going over by the field that included 115 players with a 2 handicap or less. Ten men bettered par 72 and four others equaled it, despite the steaming 90-degree heat.

For the five previous years, a total of only 10 men broke par on qualifying day.

It took a score of 77 or better to survive for today's 32 first round matches. In each of the two previous years 81 was good enough to make the grade.

Herb Durham of Dallas, Tex., a surprise finalist two years ago, when he lost to Dick Chapman 11 and 10, was the hottest shooter of them all with a five-under 33-34.

He was one shot ahead of John Gounther of Reading, Pa. Another shot back was Frank Stranacci of Miami, Fla., who won back to back Miami and South titles in 1959-60.

Local Bow, Arrow Boys Again Second

The Dyke Springs Archers again finished a close second to Pine Bluff in the second Arkansas Bowyer's Shoot held at Pine Bluff last Saturday. The team shoot is scored by allowing all the club members to shoot and totaling the top four scores of each club for the team total. The local team consisted of Roy Warren, Fay James, Dick Hoggard and Charles Gough.

In the women's division, the locals finished third behind Pine Bluff and El Dorado with Mrs. Roy Warren, Mrs. Roy Dale Fry, Mrs. "Red" Goodner and Mrs. Lorraine Evans comprising the team.

Charles Gough was high individual shooter finishing three points ahead of Tri-State champion Mike Callison and 21 points ahead of State Champion Joe Bovine.

This tournament is sponsored by the Arkansas Field Archery Assn. and will be held in Hope the last week end in May.

Sergeants Are Trailing in Contest

WENDOVER, Utah (AP) — A limping man and a woman, identified as two sleeping sergeants from Britain today, as the United States, tried their hike across the United States.

The sergeants, Mervyn Evans and Patrick Moloney, pool-pooled the idea they are in a race with 60-year-old Dr. Barbara Moore to determine who can get from San Francisco to the East Coast the quickest.

But the woman veterinarian, who mows grass along the way, had said she would pass her countrymen. And she did it today before dawn as the sergeants snoozed in their camp five miles east of this town on the Utah-Nevada border.

Desk clerk Melvin Leland at the Stateline Motel in adjoining Wendover, Nev., said Dr. Moore arose

REFLECTIONS IN THE SUN—Warmed by the bright Roman sun, these two sergeants of different generations seem lost in the world of their own thoughts, love and dreams, perhaps. The pensive girl and news-absorbed old man are seated on a ledge near the Trinita de Monti Church, which overlooks the famed Spanish Steps.

Chapter XX

Pete got up. He said, "Well, I had to tell someone. If Mark were here—" He stopped, appalled.

"Yes, I know. But he isn't," Rose said. "Did Mark tell you Karen went to see him at the office?"

"No."

"Did she tell you?"

"Oh, yes," said Rose, "she told me."

"What has she against me?" Pete asked.

She said, "Pete, I'm so sorry for Karen."

He walked away from her, about 3 a.m. and began hiking without breakfast. Evans and Moloney stumbled until 6 a.m.

All three are trying to better the transcontinental walking record of 79 days, 10 hours 10 minutes for the more than 3,000 miles. The mark was set in 1926 by A. L. Monteverde.

George Bernard Shaw once commented that "all great truths began as blasphemies."

"Turkey now substitutes tea, which it grows on its own soil, for coffee. Reason is that homegrown tea is cheaper than imported coffee."

limping a little as he did now, when he was tired, and went down the steps where a path ran to the driveway. He said, over his shoulder, "So you're sorry for her. What about me? First Mark, now Karen . . ."

She ran down the steps and overtook him. On the path she took his arm and swung him around.

"Why did you come here? There are others you could tell. Your brother—or Dave—"

"Dave knows."

"But, why—me?"

"She liked you," Pete said. "I thought, maybe, after a while, you'd hear from her. I came to ask, if you do, will you tell me?"

She said, "Pete, if I hear, I'll tell you. If she asks me not to say where, I'll respect that, but at least I can tell you I've heard."

She was standing in the tunnel, away from the wall. Her own need had taken her to her knees. Debbie's pulled her forward. She was slowly, in her personal darkness, walking. She did not like this man, she never had. Now and then she and Mark had clashed over Pete Jackson. Now she knew why. Spiritually this was an empty man. And she also was empty, if not in the same way. Now she was so sorry for him she could have cried.

She put her hand on his, reached up and kissed his cheek. She said, "I didn't mean to be tough. . . . Yes, I did mean it. I believe I've spoken the truth as far as I can see it. And if ever you want to talk again, come back."

He said, "Thanks, Rose."

She watched him get into his car and drive off. Her cheek was wet; and she had not cried. She thought: I hated him for a long while.

She went back into the house, and upstairs, where she undressed and went to bed. She left the lights on, sat back against the pillows.

In the bedroom there was an enlarged snapshot of herself with Mark. Tim had taken it, a couple of years ago. They were laughing, squinting a little in the sun. Every so often she put it away and then took it out again. Tonight, for some reason, she remembered sitting in the airport with Debbie, waiting for their return flight from Washington. They'd waited for an hour or more; there was fog, the plane had been delayed. Debbie kept wondering aloud if the taxi Rose had engaged to meet them—she couldn't impose on her friends all the time—would wait, too, at the other end of the trip. Finally Debbie had immersed herself in a movie magazine and Rose had watched the people. There were so many couples of every age. One must have been in their middle seventies. They sat, held hands and looked into each other's eyes and whispered; and once, as Rose looked, the man leaned forward swiftly and kissed his wife's cheek. . . . at their age," the woman next to Rose said to her companion. Governor in Renewal of Charges

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today renewed his charge that Joe Grady is connected with integration moderates.

Faubus announced Saturday he would oppose Faubus' fourth term bid for governor.

The 61-year-old planter-businessman called a special news conference at his Grady home to make the announcement, and told newsmen that he was a segregationist.

Faubus discussed Grady's announcement during a brief meeting with newsmen before leaving for a speaking engagement at Hot Springs.

"Someone asked me, last week if I saw any significance in his holding his press conference Saturday at Grady," the governor said. "My classification of him is that he is connected with the Little Rock Main Street so-called moderates and I think he held his press conference at Grady in an effort to give the impression that he is not so closely tied in with them as he really is."

Earlier, the governor had charged that Grady met with a group of "hard-core" integrationists at Little Rock to discuss the gubernatorial race. Grady denied meeting with any such group.

In making his announcement, Grady said Faubus could write the segregation plank in his platform for him if the governor wanted to.

Asked to comment on this, Faubus replied:

"Well, I happen to know that hasn't been his attitude until he started to run for office. He belonged to the group that opposed me in the Little Rock affair since 1957. He opposed my position and my action I took in the Little Rock affair."

The governor also charged that Grady became "openly identified with the so-called moderate group."

As he left his office, Faubus turned to newsmen and said: "You know the so-called moderate of the present time would have been the same as a loyalist of the American Revolution. Their philosophy was to surrender the people's rights to save their money."

Grady has said he would file formally for the governor's race this week.

Barring other filings before the was all a matter of interpretation . . . some would think it silly; some, slightly disgusting. But others knew it was beautiful.

Another couple went past; they were Rose's age; they, too, held hands as they followed a porter. She spoke aloud to Mark's unsatisfactory picture. She said, "I've forgiven him. Actually I had nothing to forgive; it wasn't his fault. Dave might have been driving; it could have been anyone; it could have been you."

Debbie wrote from camp. She was worried about Tim who, much to her astonishment, had turned up in a borrowed car, the previous Sunday. They were not far distant in miles, but he'd stayed less than an hour.

"Boy," was he ever shook up!" reported Debbie. "He didn't let me know he was coming, just barged in. Sunday's visiting day for the kids, remember, so Miss Potter didn't mind my having a visitor, too. I took him out on a dock and we talked—mostly about what he calls hated labor. Says it will be easier when he gets into ROTC; he'd rather drill than carry trays (we've noticed he doesn't like carrying trays at home). Before Tim left, I got it out of him that he's had a supersonic row with Kate—she's on the Cape, too."

"He laughed their fight off, of course, said Kate didn't have red hair for nothing, but, if you ask me, he's taking it hard. He's flipped. I don't know what it was about, he said he'd goofed and she was sore. Maybe you know."

Rose didn't. When Tim was home and Kate available, his side of their telephone conversations were unrevealing. Things appeared to be cool or crazy and there was a plethora of Yeah, Mams.

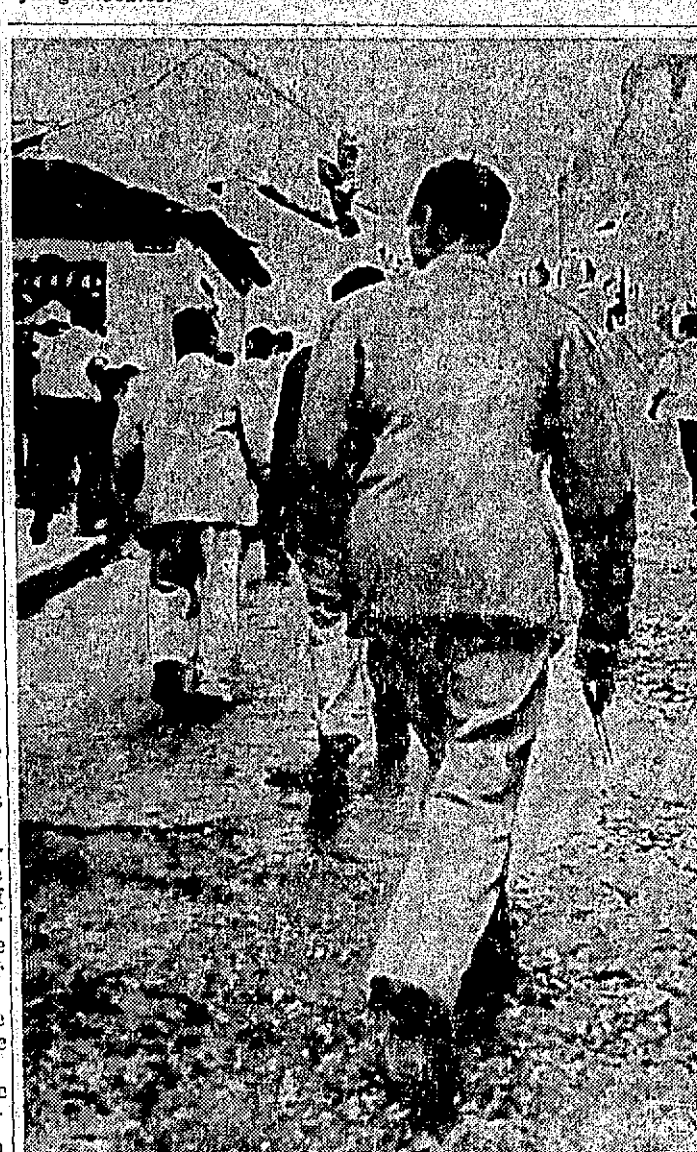

She dismissed Tim's involvement as part of the sensibilities of the young, and then remembered that when she was 19, she'd married. . . . Tim was nearly 20.

Restaurant Hit for $4,500

ENCINO, Calif. (AP) — Five gunmen herded actor Francis Lederer, comedian Tommy Noonan, their wives and author Gail Gathers into a walk-in freezer and robbed a San Fernando Valley restaurant of an estimated $4,500 early today.

Four robbers carried pistols, one a sawed-off shotgun. All were in their early 20s.

Young Democrats Name Officials

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP)—Franklin County Rep. Lowell Whittington of Cecil is the new president of the Arkansas Young Democrats Club.

He was elected Saturday at the close of a convention which heard Gov. Orval E. Faubus and Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, both candidates for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, and Roy Schaffer of Pittsburgh, Pa., national president of the Young Democrats Club of America.

Named vice presidents were Miss Alyce Patterson of Little Rock, Pat Moran of Fayetteville and Mrs. Martha Sanders of Jacksonville.

Demo Rivals Seek Votes in W. Virginia

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two Democratic rivals, who will debate together on television in 10 days, rode separate buses through West Virginia today in a race for primary votes.

Other Democratic presidential candidates hunted for votes in other parts of the country, although one, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, described his tour as nonpolitical.

In Las Vegas, Nev., Sunday, Johnson stood under a huge banner, saying, "Johnson for President," and told newsmen: "No, I'm not seeking the Democratic nomination."

On the Republican side, a poll and a newspaper report had news that could be troublesome for Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The poll indicated Nixon might run behind a Democrat, Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, in the Indiana primary. The news report talked of an attempt by Harold Stassen to start a new stop-Nixon movement.

In West Virginia, the bus of Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota headed north from Charleston, while the bus of Kennedy headed out of Huntington into the coal areas of the south.

The aides of the two senators agreed Sunday to schedule a televised debate for May 4, six days before the West Virginia primary. The debate will be carried on five state stations. There is a possibility that a national network may pick it up.

A poll of weekly newspaper editors in West Virginia indicated Humphrey appeared a likely winner in the primary. But the editors, polled by the New York Times, also said Kennedy had been picking up votes recently.

Kennedy's fortunes appeared smoother in other states. Maine Democrats ended their annual convention Sunday by picking a 26-delegate slate that was unpledged but in favor of Kennedy. Kennedy has no opposition in the Massachusetts primary Tuesday. Neither has Nixon on the Republican ballot. The turnout is expected to be very light.

Political observers will watch Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary for a possible clue to voter sentiment on presidential candidates.

In the presidential preference balloting, voters will find on their ballots only Nixon's name on the Republican side. No Democrats are listed.

Thus national attention will be focused on the number of writings for both parties and the division of votes.

Registrations would point to an easy Republican victory. There are 83,976 Republicans eligible and 66,265 Democrats.

The Indiana poll showing Kennedy ahead of Nixon in the May 3 primary was released by Nixon's office. The two men will be opposed on separate ballots.

Mute Agrees to Return to State

ROCKFORD, Ill. (AP) — Billy Gene Ervin, 24, a deaf mute from Redfield, Ark., has agreed to return to Arkansas to face kidnapping charges filed on complaint of the parents of another deaf mute.

Ervin was arrested here on a federal charge of unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for kidnapping and his bond set at $5,000. He agreed to return to Arkansas at a hearing Friday.

Authorities said Ervin is accused of kidnapping Evan Eugene Lawhorn, 24, also of Redfield and also a mute, on April 10. Miss Lawhorn, located in Chicago, indicated she had accompanied Ervin voluntarily.

FBI agents said.

on faith that she would return (trial).

When she failed to appear for trial Monday, federal marshals checked and learned that her pregnancy had been nothing more than a well-placed pillow.

"I suspect from now on the marshal will make a much more minute examination," said Judge Walter E. Hoffmann.

Couple Still Wants to GiveAway Baby

LONDON (AP) — A young Moore the British wife who wanted to give her unborn child to an American couple, has had a baby boy. "He's a wonderful baby," she said. "But I still want to give him away."

The child was born in a maternity hospital Friday. He weighed 6 pounds, 14 ounces.

Mrs. Moore and her husband, Leo, were to have flown to the United States last month. When the baby was born they planned to give it away for adoption to Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Prescott of North Charleston, S.C.

The U.S. Embassy withdrew her visa. Then she got a call from the Prescotts saying they didn't want the baby after all. They complained the giveaway had aroused too much publicity.

The Moores have been married 20 years and say they are to old now to start a family. Mrs. Moore is 39, her husband 40.

Director J. Edgar Hoover said the agents took into custody Dr. Joseph E. Toomey, 36-year-old Lompoc dentist.

He was accused of starting a false bomb scare last Friday when he was about to board Continental Airlines flight 12 at Los Angeles International Airport. The plane was preparing to take off for Kansas City, Mo.

The complaint against Dr. Toomey said he requested change at a ticket window in order to purchase flight insurance, and allegedly remarked that he had a bomb in his luggage and had to make a payoff.

The FBI said a search of the dentist's luggage failed to reveal any bomb and the flight departed.

India Rejects a Proposal From China

By WATSON SIMS

NEW DELHI (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru today rejected a proposal by Red China's Chou En-Lai that India abandon her claim to 15,000 square miles in the Ladakh sector of Kashmir in exchange for clear title to 30,000 disputed square miles on the northeast frontier.

"There can be no question of bartering away this area. Its ownership (by India) is a settled fact," Nehru told reporters at the airport after seeing Chou off to Nepal.

Before winding up his week-long visit, Chou told a news conference he had offered to abandon Peiping's claims to the northeast frontier territory in exchange for the Ladakh sector.

The Red Chinese Premier said India was "not entirely agreed" to the swap he proposed, but the border dispute "became smaller" as a result of his 21 hours of talk with Nehru.

Commenting on Chou's remarks, Nehru told newsmen that the Chinese leader's facts "are so basically different from ours that naturally conclusions differ, too."

Nehru said the week-long negotiations had brought "no lessening in the basic tensions" but added that feeling was not so "bitter" as during the border skirmishes last year in which 12 Indians were killed.

Chou's proposed deal indicated that the Chinese had sent troops into the mountainous, economically unimportant northeast frontier area primarily as a bargaining lever, and that Ladakh, on the northwest frontier, was their real target. The Chinese want Ladakh because they have built across it a key road between Communist-occupied Tibet and the western Chinese province of Sinkiang.

Nehru said he still felt the foot of the trouble was Chinese expansionism.

The Chinese want Ladakh because they have built across it a key road between Communist-occupied Tibet and the western Chinese province of Sinkiang.

Nehru said he still felt the foot of the trouble was Chinese expansionism.

Chou's proposed deal indicated that the Chinese had sent troops into the mountainous, economically unimportant northeast frontier area primarily as a bargaining lever, and that Ladakh, on the northwest frontier, was their real target. Total Retail Trading Zone	1,294
Total City & Retail Trading Zones	3,383

All Other — Mail subscriptions	130
---------------------------------------	------------

TOTAL NET PAID	3,513
-----------------------	--------------

Paragraph 13: Distribution in towns receiving 25 or more copies in detail by counties, as well as the total only for towns receiving less than 25 copies daily.

Evening, December 14, 1959

The listing below gives gross distribution for one day only and is greater or less than the net paid average for the period covered by this report by the following percentages:

City Zone	0.86% less
Retail Trading Zone	0.23% less
All Other	9.23% greater
GRAND TOTAL	0.26% less

The "adjusted figures" of county totals appearing below have been arrived at by decreasing (or increasing) the listed county total figures by the appertaining percentages as above set forth. These adjusted county totals will, therefore, approximate the net paid average for the period covered by this report.

*"Balance in County" is comprised of the distribution in towns receiving less than 25 copies which is not identified with the towns, townships or minor civil divisions listed.

AUDIT BUREAU OF CIRCULATIONS

End of Audit Report.

WHAT IS ABC?

The Audit Bureau of Circulations, Chicago, by its own definition is: "a co-operative association of advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers for the verification of circulation of newspaper and periodical members in the United States and Canada."

It is controlled by those who buy advertising (manufacturing, merchandising and service companies, and their agencies) rather than those who sell advertising (newspapers and magazines).

COST OF ADVERTISING

Pick up an invoice for newspaper advertising and you will find that you are billed for so many column-inches at so much per inch. That's how it is billed — but that isn't how it is sold.

The price of an inch of advertising is meaningless unless you know what the paper's circulation is. When you know that you know the cost.

The cost of advertising is the cost per inch per thousand circulation. That's the great yardstick by which advertising is bought and sold from coast to coast. The national advertisers call it "the milline" — the cost per line (1/14th of an inch) per million circulation.

Now you know why ABC audits are important. They verify circulation — the factor which is combined with the publisher's charge per inch to establish the advertising cost yardstick.

IT'S CHEAP TODAY

Hope Star's local advertising costs about the same today as in 1929. The rate-per-inch is higher, it is true — but circulation also has increased. Here is the comparison:

	1929	1960
Local "open" rate per inch per thousand	20c	26.2c

And that's a performance we feel deserves a page advertisement all its own.
